guerilla warfare is expected to exhaust the Turks much sooner, while the unhampered bands can move easily and more rapidly. It is hoped that the new tactics will result in the women and children being spared unnecessary dangers.

The insurgents now have nearly 2,000 men armed with rifles in Eastern Macedonia and thousands of peasants are ready to join their forces when a general rising has been proclaimed. This stop is being delayed until the supply of rifles, cartridges and dynamite is recived. New bands, aggregating 1,600 men, are reported to be on their way to the frontier.
